Starting with PC12 sunrise shot.

- 1. PC12 Sunrise shot over the front range of the Rocky Mountains. This is the only photo that I neither shot myself nor was present.
Flying the aircraft was a former Chief Pilot for Pilatus Business Aircraft Ltd; North America (PilBAL) on a photo shoot mission. Copied this from another Internet photo gallery.
- 2. Relentless Swiss. Painted for the 2002 NBAA convention. Pilatus ad campaign. Photo taken Jan. 2003
I took this while at PilBAL (Broomfield, CO) for Maintenance course.
- 3. Monument Valley, Utah/Arizona border.
Shot this at sunset, April 2001. This shot is what my logo is based upon
- 4. “Kitty”. Painted for the 2000 NBAA convention.
Yours truly - standing by “Kitty” at Leadville, CO. September 2000.
- 5. On final to Mustique, St. Vincent/Grenadines (TVSM). Feb. 2002
This was shot by my right seat passenger on completion of a non-stop flight from Orlando, Florida. Flight was at normal maximum cruise power, enroute time was 6.1 hours and runway was 3250’. Had 600 lbs of fuel remaining after shutdown.
- 6. Takeoff roll at Drake Bay, Costa Rica (MRDK). October 2008
My right seat passenger took this shot as we started the takeoff roll. 2400’ is the runway length with the Pacific Ocean at the end of the runway.
- 7. PilBAL maintenance course. January 2003
Photo of device used to “simulate” engine running for Stick Pusher/Shaker testing and calibration.
- 8. Cockpit with center console panels removed. Summer 2003
Shot this during work on the Series 10 FTD for Simcom. Actual pre-production, complete cockpit sent from Switzerland.
